

Curriculum Vitae

Günter Gloser,

Member of the German Bundestag (Social Democratic Party of Germany)

Constituency: Nuremberg North

Date of birth: 27 January 1950 (Nuremberg)

Married, two children

Studied law at the University of Erlangen-Nuremberg, first and second state examinations in law

1982-1994: worked for the Federal Employment Service, Nuremberg, ultimately as head of division

Parliamentary career:

- Member of the German Bundestag since October 1994
- 2000-2005 spokesman of the SPD Parliamentary Group on European policy
- 1999-2005 and again since 2010 Chairman of the German-Maghreb Parliamentary Friendship Group
- 1994-2005 member of the Middle East discussion group of the SPD Parliamentary Group; since 2010 as Chairman of the Group
- 2004-2005 and again since 2010 alternate member of the Euro-Mediterranean Parliamentary Assembly
- 2005-2009 Minister of State for Europe at the Federal Foreign Office and Federal Government Commissioner for Franco-German Cooperation

- since October 2009 Member of the Foreign Affairs Committee of the German Bundestag. Rapporteur on Relations with Middle East countries

- since September 2010 alternate Chairman of the German-French Parliamentary Friendship Group